Help MAGIC Help YOU

Below is an example of hand-made Lineage Chart #1 with 5 generations. It quickly and at a glance captures the names/dates/places of your DIRECT ancestors' birth/marriage/death dates. The names of great great grandparents go on the far right, and have a number next to each. That numeral indicates the subsequent chart where their details will be entered, so that the tree may 'grow' and 'branch' as more details may be uncovered.

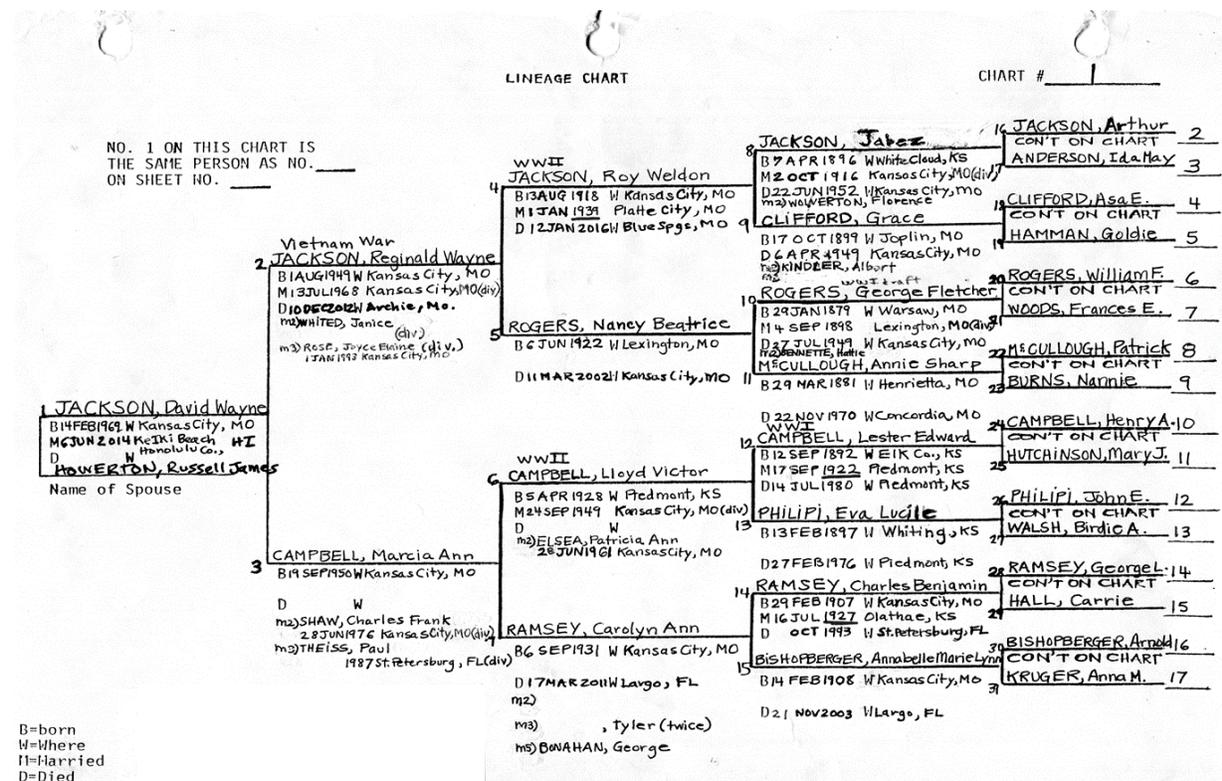

Don't worry about missing or blank entries on your chart...they are opportunities for you to see where there are gaps needing further research.

These charts also help other genealogists quickly help give you pointers on what/where you might go next in your research.

You can also see migration patterns by studying the locations of each generation's birth, marriage and places of death.

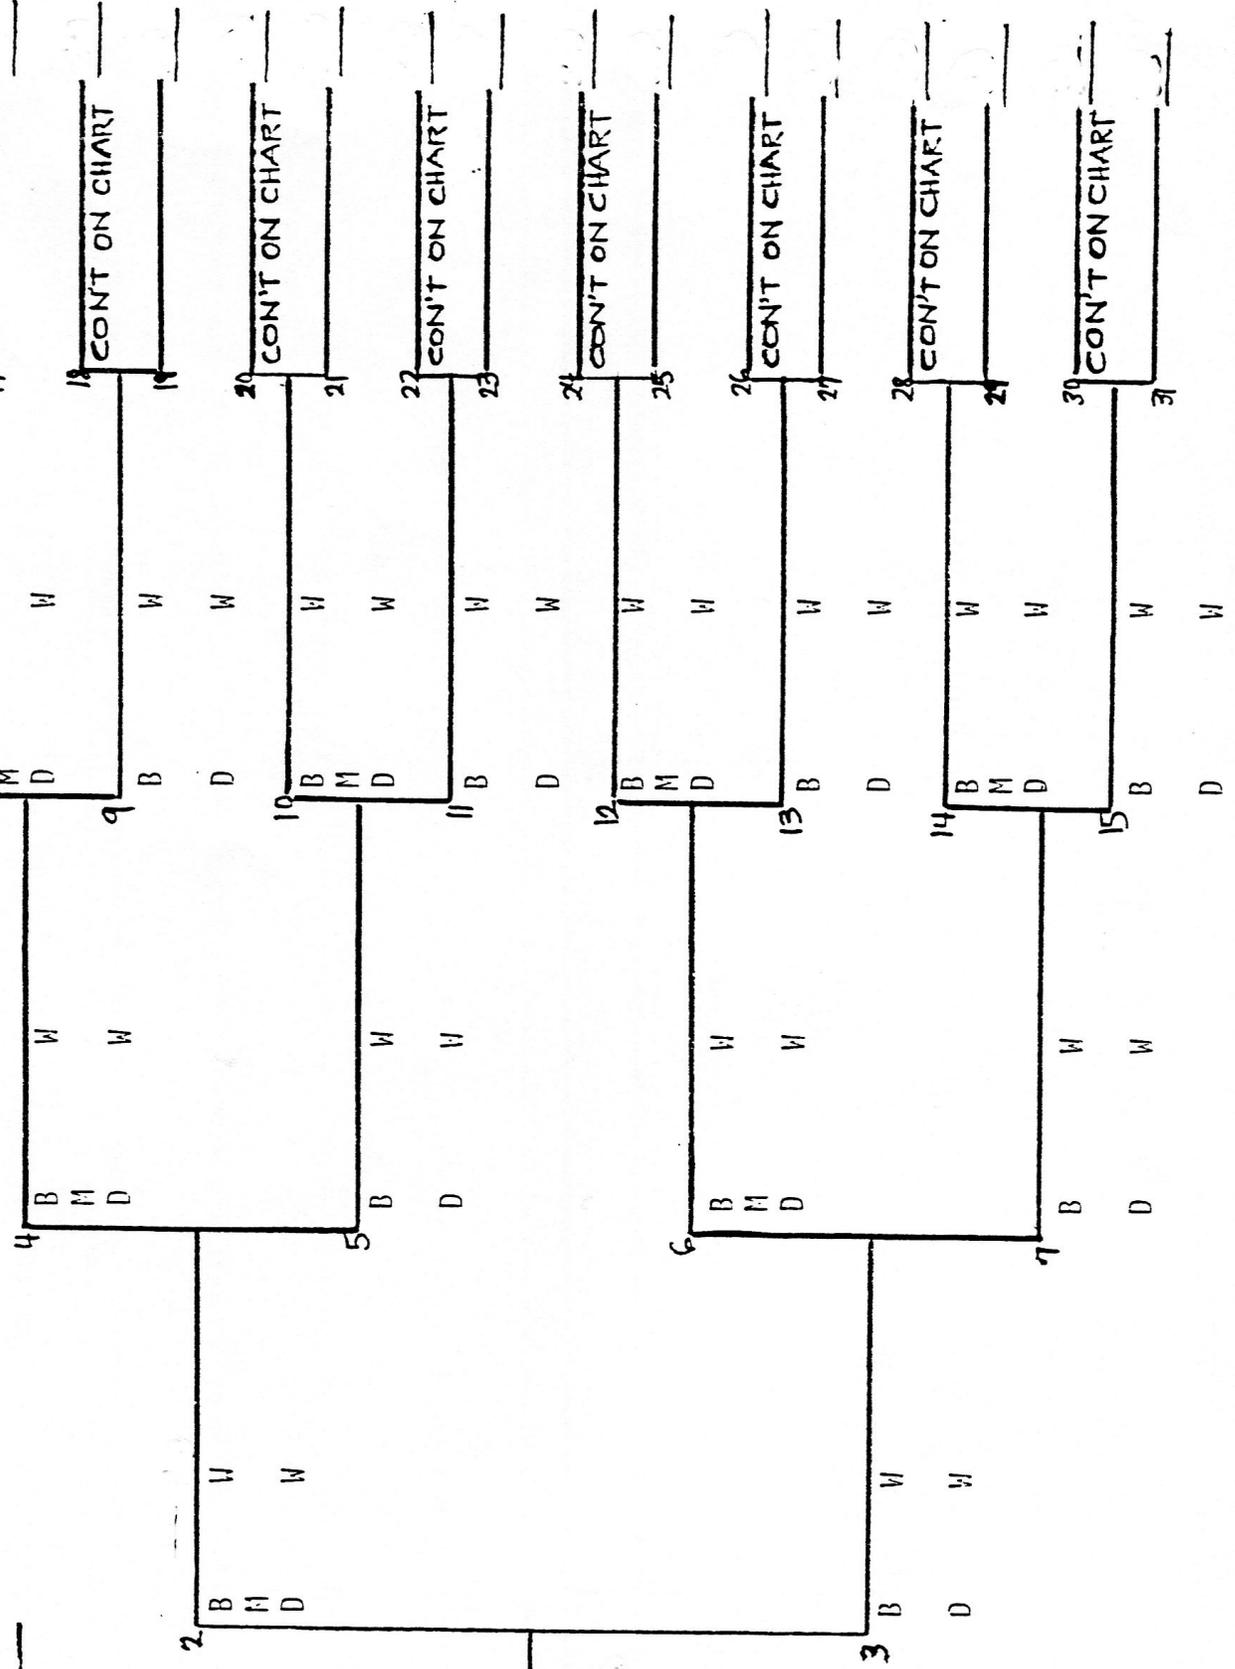

Fill-in, to the best of your ability and knowledge, your own Chart #1 and submit it to MAGIC for posterity. You can turn-in a printed chart at one of our meetings, surface mail to MAGIC's PO Box, or e-mail it to magickc.org@gmail.com.

You never know who might see it and have an idea/s for you. Or, even more excitingly, a long-lost cousin may contact you who shares a common ancestor with you. And, they may have lots of information and photos passed down their line that you may have never seen!

Documenting Enslaved Ancestors

Recently, documents pertaining to enslaved persons have been found for sale on ebay.com (you can save a search in your Ebay account to notify you when items with “Missouri slave” are posted for sale). Mostly they are Probate Court-related, or are receipts for “personal property” transactions. These are the types of documents that often assign first names to enslaved people, and sometimes help connect to a slaveholding family. One reason for doing that is that by uncovering slaveholder’s records, modern genealogists with ancestors of African descent can make inferences and connections that my otherwise not be possible.

MAGIC member found at the Virginia State Library some late 1840s and early 1850s deed transactions in Kanawha County, Virginia, for his enslaved ancestor, Arthur Jackson’s slaveholder, and they named Arthur’s parents and siblings!

This memorandum witnesseth: That Thomas Conway, of the County of Howard and State of Delisware, hath this day sold to James A. Richs of the County and State aforesaid, a certain negro man named Adam, a slave for life, for and in consideration of the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, fifty dollar, whereof the said Conway acknowledges himself this day to have received of said Richs, and the remainder is to be paid at the times and under the conditions following (To wit.) Fifty dollars on the 10th day of March next - one hundred dollars on the second day of January 1833, one hundred dollars on the second day of January 1834, and the remaining fifty dollars on the 2^d day of January 1835. It is further agreed between the parties, that said Richs is at liberty to return said negro to said Conway at the expiration of twelve months from this date (or sooner if said negro should become sickly or prove unsound) in which event the sale aforesaid is to be considered null and void, and said Conway binds himself to repay to said Richs what-
